EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Engagement of Miss Carbo and Mr. Jones of Baltimore announced.

Mrs. Benjamin Micou Hostess at Bridge—Suppers of Last Night. Weddings—Personals.

Mrs. Carbo, widow of the former minister to the United States from Ecuador, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marie Angelica, and Mr. Willis Roscoe Jones of Baltimore.

Miss Carbo has been a great favorite in society here, and the family residence on I street has been the scene of many delightful entertainments.

Mr. Jones is a graduate of the University of Maryland law school and a member of the bar of Baltimore. The wedding is expected to take place in the fall.

Mrs. Benjamin Micou is entertaining at a bridge party of six tables at the Chevy Chase Club today in honor of Mrs. E. W. Eberle.

Miss Nell Rose Baggett has as her guest her cousin, Miss Bell Moncure Perkins of New York.

Miss Baggett will entertain at a dance in Miss Perkins' honor this evening at the Rochambeau.

Commander I. V. Miltzow, naval attaché of the Russian embassy, is in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Peter, Jr., are spending a few days in New York before going to their country place at Cambridge, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foraker motored to Philadelphia to spend the week end with Mr. Foraker's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. King Wainwright, at Bryn Mawr.

An interesting wedding took place in New Orleans Saturday when Miss Willie Cooper, daughter of former Representative S. B. Cooper of Texas, and Mr. W. P. Hobbs, lieutenant governor of Texas, were married at the St. Charles Hotel.

The bride was given away by her father, and she was attended by Miss Henderson, Miss Jacoby, wife of Representative Jacoby of Arkansas, and Mr. Edwin Hobbs of Dallas, Texas, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The Secretary of War spent yesterday at Atlantic City.

Mr. Arthur S. Thompson of New York city and Miss Helen L. Duval of Springfield, at the home of the late of the two immediate families only were present. The bride wore a simple white dress and carried white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Lunch was served after the ceremony, and the bride and groom departed shortly afterward for a few weeks' trip. They will be at home to their friends in New York city after June 15.

Mr. Thompson is secretary to the general manager of the Associated Press. He was formerly connected with the office of the assistant secretary of the Treasury, and was chief clerk of the bureau of navigation in the State Department. He is a Washingtonian, his mother and family residing here now.

Mrs. E. M. Marc of the Burlington was the hostess Friday at a delightful birthday celebration, when she was assisted in receiving by her guest, Mrs. Howard W. Morse of Boston. Mrs. Marc was the recipient of many beautiful flowers and gifts. Music and cards, followed by refreshments, concluded the evening.

Dr. Tom A. Williams has returned from visits to New York, Tide Water and West Virginia.

Mrs. Snyder entertained at a musicale yesterday afternoon at her residence on N street, followed by tea. The artists were Miss Florence Girouard, with Mrs. Ramsdell and the Messrs. Ramsdell.

Mrs. Samuel Hill will make a short stay in New York before going to Seattle, Wash.

Col. and Mrs. R. P. Davis entertained at a supper last night at their apartment in Stoneleigh Court, when their guests included Capt. and Mrs. Bayard Schindel, Lieut. and Mrs. C. M. Maigne, Mrs. I. T. Mann, Col. Haines, Lieut. Easterday and Mr. Walter Parker.

Capt. and Mrs. Mark Bristol entertained at a farewell supper party last night in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell Greif, who will leave this week for New York. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney, Capt. and Mrs. Baldwin, Capt. and Mrs. Wiley, Mr. Pollock, Mrs. Raybeard, military attaché of the Argentine embassy, and Mavrouli Effendi of the Turkish embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter entertained at dinner last night.

Former Gov. Judson Harmon of Ohio arrived in Washington yesterday, and is stopping at the Shoreham.

Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams are expected to pass the summer at Edge-water, the summer place of the late Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter, at West Beach, Beverly Farms.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening when Miss Florence E. King, daughter of the late George W. E. King of Howard county, Maryland, was married to Dr. T. Marshall West at the residence of the bride's cousin, Mrs. William E. Clark, 2128 Wyoming avenue. Rev. T. Marshall West of Sykesville, Md., father of the groom, performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Miss Ella Hoops. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. William E. King. The bride wore a white crepe de chine with shadow lace and pearls and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and a train of white ribbons. The bride's twin sisters, Misses Grace and Laura King, were bridesmaids and they wore white matronlike gowns over pink and blue, and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas. Dr. Thomas R. West of the city was best man. Only relatives were present and after a reception Dr. West and his bride left for a short northern trip before returning to his hospital at Fayetteville, N. C. Both the bride and groom are former residents of Howard county, Maryland. Dr. West is a graduate of Maryland University and for the past six years has lived in Fayetteville. They will be at home after June 1.

Miss Janet Richards is spending a few days in New York as the guest of Mrs. George Buchanan Duckett of Riverside drive, where she will enjoy a fine view of today's naval parade.

The marriage of Mrs. Louisa Fletcher Tarkington, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. Willard Connolly of New York, took place yesterday at the apartment of the bride's sister, Miss Hilda Fletcher. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. G. R. Pierce in the presence of the family. The bride wore a gown of white lace and was unattended. Mr. E. A. Davis of New York was best man. In addition to Miss Fletcher the company included Mrs. F. A. Fletcher of Indianapolis, a sister-in-

To Become Acting President.

Dr. Alberto Membreno, minister from Honduras, has taken leave of Secretary Bryan preliminary to his departure for Tegucigalpa to become acting president of his government. President Bertrand of Honduras is a candidate to succeed himself, and under the constitution must absent himself from that office for six months prior to his election. The election is in the late autumn, and the new term will begin in February.

Self-Abasement.

From Judge. "Every man should know himself," remarked the parlor philosopher. "Perhaps," said the mere man; "but in doing so, he wastes a lot of time that might be spent in making more desirable acquaintances."
